TV Series Commission Award

Zinc Media is pleased to announce that its subsidiary, Tern Television Productions Limited (“Tern Television”) has received a two year re-commission for its long running gardening series, ‘The Beechgrove Garden’. ‘The Beechgrove Garden’ has been commissioned by BBC Scotland for a two year period, starting in 2019. Tern Television will produce 14 episodes in each year, alongside social and online elements as well.

David Galan, Chief Executive Officer, commented:

“This recommission for a further two series highlights the broad spread of programming that the Group now produces from its different production bases and also serves to strengthen the visibility of our order book into future years.”
